Dear Parent/Carer

Thank you for your enquiry regarding Extended Leave – Travel. Extended Leave forms must be completed 2 weeks prior to travel.

Please note that the NSW Education Act (1990) sections 22 and 23 clearly states that attendance at school is compulsory until the age of 17 years. Therefore the school cannot condone or make special provisions for students taking leave for family holidays during school term time. This includes the provision of supplementary or alternative classwork, online tasks or alternative assessment. Such family recreation and travel should instead be planned for school holiday periods.

Please be aware that your child(ren) may be absent when important academic assessments are conducted by their class teacher and/or other specialist teachers at Riverbank Public School during this time of Extended Leave. This may adversely affect the detail included in any upcoming Student Reports provided to you.

Please ensure your child has returned from leave for the first day of the school year.

Details of prior extended leave are kept as part of each student's records, and future applications may be deemed unjustified on the basis of overall attendance patterns and data.

Yours sincerely,

Jeanie Brown
Principal
